Originally founded in 1984 as the RCAF Memorial Library and Museum, the National Air Force Museum of Canada (NAFMC) now presents more than 40,000 artifacts and memorabilia. Situated on 15 acres, the RCAF Memorial Airpark exhibits 22 historic aircraft including the DC-3 Dakota which revolutionized air transport around the world, the F-86 Sabre, the finest 'dogfighter' of its day and the prize of the collection, the Handley Page Halifax, one of the most versatile Bombers of the Second World War. In the last two years, work has begun on the challenging restorations of a 1942 Avro Anson Mk II and a 1943 North American Harvard Mk II. Originally produced in Canada, these two vintage aircraft were instrumental in training generations of RCAF and Allied aircrew. Admission is Free!
